The Horseshoe Nail ring is an historic tale unique to Mormon History. As the pioneers crossed the plains, many of the young men and women fell in love. With nothing to offer but the hope of a new world and a burning faith in the future, the men would offer a horseshoe nail bent into a ring to a hopeful bride-to-be. This unique look came to be known as a "Prairie Diamond." While no longer used as an engagement ring, this now represents a treasured part of our past, a reminder of the sacrifice, and gives a promise for our future.

Church HISTORY

JOSEPH SMITH RING

The original ring dates from the Nauvoo period and is believed to be the ring the Prophet used in the April 1844 "King Follett" sermon to illustrate the eternal nature of man.

Sometime after the Prophet's martyrdom in 1844, Emma Smith gave the ring to Alexander Hale Smith, one of their sons. The ring appears on Joseph's hand in several paintings done in his lifetime. Today the ring is privately owned.

Joseph Smith's signature on the inside of the ring is an added designer's element. This reproduction is a high quality replica of the original.

My Three White Dresses

My Three White Dresses

by: Linda Gay Perry Nelson

My mom bought me a white dress, Not red or pink or blue.
She said it was a special dress, Like very other few.
There has been just one before, A dress now put away,
That I wore some time ago, Upon my blessing day.
As a little baby clothed, In my first white dress,
My dad held me in his arms, There to name and bless.

So pure and clean was I just then, With time to grow and learn,
About the Father's plan for me, My glory I must earn.

Now I've reached the age to judge, The wrong road from the right,
And I am here to be baptized, In this dress of white.
So once again I'm free from sin, The path is clear to me.
I'll grasp the rod and hold on tight, I vow with certainty.
Just as mud would stain my dress, Sin would stain my soul.
The key is to repent or bleach, For whiteness is my goal.

And if I try my very best, Then richly blessed I'll be,
Wearing inside God's holy house, White dress number three.
So today I make this pledge: I'll strive to choose the right.
Through this sacred baptism ordinance, In my second dress of white.

Testimony Pearls Set

"Beginning as a tiny grain of sand encased deep within an oyster, a pearl is built over several years. The oyster cultivates and protects the seemingly insignificant piece of sand, coating it layer upon layer until it becomes the cherished gem we admire. It is something that man has only been able to imitate.

Like a pearl, your testimony is also something that starts small with potential to radiate beauty. You must protect and cultivate it too. The world will never be able to give you this same inner beauty; it can only provide weak imitations."

Drawing On The Powers of Heaven

by Grant Von Harrison

$14.99

GB2024 - Spanish

The powers of heaven are very real, virtually unlimited and can dramatically influence the course of events in a person's life. In our relationship with Deity, the powers of heaven include inspiration, gifts of the spirit, and power of the priesthood, among others. These are governed by God and operate in our behalf. This book points out the ways the powers of heaven can assist mortal men.

The Fifth Gospel (Hard Cover)

By: Larry Ward

$9.99

BNA0041 - Spanish Non-Fiction

Bringing together all four of the Gospels, Larry Ward creates a chronological compilation of the four gospels from the sometimes disparate writings of Matthew, Mark, Luke, John and the inspired verses of the Joseph Smith Translation. More complete than the Diatessaron (written by Titian in the first century AD), The Fifth Gospel offers faithful readers a new glimpse into the old stories they believe they have already heard everything from. Along with combining verses, Ward includes a full dictionary, colored maps, concordance, and footnotes. These additions will aid readers in getting the full experience of the miraculous tale they are reading.

THE FAMILY A PROCLAMATION TO THE WORLD

THE FIRST PRESIDENCY AND COUNCIL OF THE THIRTY APOSTLES
OF THE CHURCH OF JESUS CHRIST OF LATTER-DAY SAINTS

"A true testimony and the Council of the First Presidency and Council of the Thirty Apostles of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, solemnly proclaim that marriage between a man and a woman is ordained of God and that the family is central to the Church's plan for the eternal destiny of its children.

As sacred bonds, made and kindred in heaven, the marriage of man and woman is ordained of God and the family is central to the Church's plan for the eternal destiny of its children. We teach that the family is the divinely appointed and authorized unit for the transmission of the family name and the perpetuation of the family.

In the presence of God, man and woman are joined in holy matrimony by the authority of the priesthood of Jesus Christ, acting in the personage of God, and are thus made one flesh. The family is the divinely appointed and authorized unit for the transmission of the family name and the perpetuation of the family.

The most comprehensive that God gave to Adam and Eve and that He has ever given to His children. We teach that the family is the divinely appointed and authorized unit for the transmission of the family name and the perpetuation of the family.

We teach that the family is the divinely appointed and authorized unit for the transmission of the family name and the perpetuation of the family. We teach that the family is the divinely appointed and authorized unit for the transmission of the family name and the perpetuation of the family.

These are the words of the Lord, which shall be written in the book of life. We teach that the family is the divinely appointed and authorized unit for the transmission of the family name and the perpetuation of the family.

We teach that the fullness of the Gospel of Jesus Christ is essential for the salvation of the human race and that the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints is the only true and living Church on the earth today.

Behold the Lamb of God!

Book Two:
The Four Gospels in
Harmonic Synthesis
(LDS Edition)
COMPILED BY JOHN B. WEAVER

Behold the Lamb of God

compiled by John B. Weaver

Volume 1 BNA0082 ~~$21.99~~ $9.99

Volume 2 BNA0092 ~~$21.99~~ $9.99

Although written by different individuals and for different audiences, each of the four gospels represents a priceless sketch of the Savior's life and teachings. None is complete, each is unique, and collectively they represent our best opportunity to understand the Lord's mortal ministry. The challenge, however, lies in the fact that the Gospels are most often presented individually, and seldom as elements of a unified life.

This book is formatted to allow the reader to follow a single narrative storyline. By reading the text from left to right across the columns, skipping the highlighted material, a richer narrative emerges. The addition of essential Joseph Smith Translations reveal even more detail as well as prophetic insight. An appendix includes a scriptural chronology, using Mark as the backbone of the construct. A visual chronology places the events of the Savior's life in the context of space and time, providing location, events, season, temperature, relationships to Jewish holidays and celebrations etc. A third resource is a detailed chronology of the final weeks of the Savior's ministry. This will help you draw closer to the Savior by coming to a greater understanding of His life and ministry.

The Infinite Christ

By: Dellas W. Lee

Thereby we learn that the power is not in the Atonement; the power is in the Infinite Christ because of His Atonement.

It tells of the divinely appointed mission of latter day Israel, namely to gather Israel and bring the means of salvation to all the rest of God's children, the Gentiles.

Baby Girl Black & White

$2.25 - TWPHS102

Baby Blessing

Inside: Her tiny hands, her tiny feet, the smell of her soft head against your cheek. A miracle in a blessing gown. How does a woman begin in so small a package? The years stretch ahead, with baby dolls and pig tails and sleep-overs and crushes. The ups and downs of adolescence, a driver's license, a first date. All this will come in the years to come, but for now she is helpless and delicate and precious. The Lord is smiling on this wonderful day. May He grant you and this tiny little miracle joy, peace, and love.
